

Do not allow
Sinclair Broadcasting to force their stations
to air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election.
Sinclair's action is
a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. It is completely biased
and unfair.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free
of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies
control the
airwaves, we get more of what's good
for the bottom line
and less of what we need for our democracy. Instead of something
produced at "News
Central" far away,
it's more important
that we see real people from our own
communities and more
substantive news
about issues that matter. And it is important that we see truly balanced
coverage.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
